

Wisteria 2022 (Blue - New 2022) Common Name	Latin Name	Zone	Height (m)	Spread (m)	Description	Red - Three or less in stock Blue - New 2022 Price/(#Stock)
Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria				Deer resistant - Native to Japan - Attracts pollinators - Needs a sturdy support structure to support vigorous, woody stems
Caroline (Royal Purple) Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria floribunda 'Caroline'	5	3-9m	3-6m	Among the darkest wisteria, stunning tresses of sweetly-scented pea-like violet flowers.	69.95 (5 NVK)
Huntington Park Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria floribunda 'Huntington Park'	5	8 - 10m	8 - 10m	Vigorous, twining vine. Large cascading clusters of clear-pink, pea-like flowers. Full sun. Rich, average to moist, well-drained soil.
Domino Japanese Wisteria Standard (Tree form)	Wisteria floribunda 'Issai' (Domino) Std	5	6m		Grafted standard-Tree form. Compact, medium sized variety, with 20cm (8") long, pendulous, pea-like flower clusters, of combined light- mauve and deep-violet with a yellow spot in the throat. Twining habit (clockwise). Blooms late spring to early summer. Full sun, rich, average to moist, well-drained soil. RHS Award of Garden Merit.	189.95 (3)
Lawrence Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria floribunda 'Lawrence'	5	8-10m		Lilac-blue pendulous, fragrant flowers, with exceptional hardiness and floriferousness. Blooms early summer. Vigorous growth habit, twining (clockwise) vine. Full sun, rich, average to moist, well-drained soil.	69.95 (5 NVK)
Multijuga Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria floribunda 'Multijuga'	5	9m	3m	Very good fragrance and exceptionally long racemes, to 3 feet. flowers are lilac-blue and appear in late spring. Give it strong support with enough height to show off its blooms.	69.95 (5 NVK)

Wisteria 2022 (Blue - New 2022) Common Name	Latin Name	Zone	Height (m)	Spread (m)	Description	Red - Three or less in stock Blue - New 2022 Price/(#Stock)
Okayama Silky Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria brachybotrys 'Okayama' (syn. Wisteria venusta)	5	3m - 6m	3m - 6m	Pendulous, 10-12cm long, pale lilac, pea-shaped flowers with a white spot, from mid-spring to mid-summer. Foliage of Japanese Silky wisteria is covered with downy, "silky" hairs, hence it's name. Vigorous stems twine in a counter-clockwise direction. Flowers are attractive to bees and butterflies. Full sun, rich, average to moist, well-drained soil. Prune after blooming to control growth. RHS Award of Garden Merit.
Shiro-beni Silky Japanese Wisteria	Wisteria brachybotrys 'Shiro-Beni' (syn. Wisteria venusta)	5	10m	5m	Pendulous, 10-12 cm long, dark-pink buds open to very fragrant, pea-shaped, soft pink flowers from mid-spring to mid-summer. Foliage of Japanese Silky wisteria is covered with downy, "silky" hairs, hence it's name. Vigorous stems twine in a counter-clockwise direction. Flowers are attractive to bees and butterflies. Full sun, rich, average to moist, well-drained soil. Prune after blooming to control growth.
Chinese Wisteria	Wisteria sinensis
Aunt Dee Chinese Wisteria	Wisteria sinensis 'Aunt Dee'	4	9m	9m	One of the hardiest of all wisterias, this breathtaking vine features stunning chains of lilac purple flowers cascading from the stems in spring; vigorous almost to a fault, this twining vine can grow quite woody, needs ample support and full sun	39.95 (10 NVK)
Blue Sapphire Chinese Wisteria	Wisteria sinensis 'Blue Sapphire'	3	10m	10m	Delicately fragrant with soft blue-violet flowers	69.95 (5 NVK)

Wisteria 2022 (Blue - New 2022) Common Name	Latin Name	Zone	Height (m)	Spread (m)	Description	Red - Three or less in stock Blue - New 2022 Price/(#Stock)
American / Kentucky Wisteria	Wisteria				Deer resistant - Attracts pollinators
Amethyst Falls American Wisteria	Wisteria frutescens 'Amethyst Falls'	5	3 - 10m		Native to South-Central US. Slower growing than Asian Wisteria. Lightly fragrant, 30cm long, pendulous racemes of purple flowers in early summer. Blooms at an early age and often re-blooms lightly later in summer. Stems twine in a counter-clockwise direction. Full sun, average to moist, well-drained soil.
Blue Moon Kentucky Wisteria	Wisteria macrostachya 'Blue Moon'	4	4.5-7.5m		Native to South-Central US. Showy, light-blue, 15-30cm, pendulous blooms. Flowers in June with 1-2 additional flushes of bloom later in summer. Vigorous stems twine counter- clockwise. Full sun, moist, well-drained soil.	29.95 (20 BAK)